

HIV COMMUNITY LINK

David McEwen is a Chartered Accountant with over 25 years of experience in progressively senior finance roles in the petroleum industry and with an international accounting firm. In addition to Calgary, he has lived and worked in London, England and Perth, Australia. The global operations of his employers has enabled him to undertake extensive travel and to interact with diverse professionals from various countries, professional disciplines, and backgrounds. David has been an active supporter of HIV Community Link since the mid 1990's and previously served on the board as Treasurer in the early 2000's and on the organizing committees of various fundraising events. He has also served as a director for other non-for-profit and professional organizations as well as on the boards of various international subsidiaries of a large public company. David is a firm believer in the positive impact local based organizations can have on communities and is glad to have this opportunity to participate with an organization that continues to make a difference in the lives of those at risk, effected or affected by HIV/AIDS and other STIs in Calgary.
