

HIV COMMUNITY LINK

David McGillivray was born and raised in Calgary and is currently working as an energy and environmental regulatory lawyer at the law firm of Bennett Jones LLP. He completed his undergraduate degree at Acadia University in Nova Scotia in 2005 and then went on to work for Alberta Justice as a policy analyst focusing on access to justice issues and stakeholder engagement. David obtained his law degree from the University of Alberta in 2009 through the course of which he was involved with Pro-Bono Students Canada where he had an opportunity to work with organizations dedicated to issues facing people with HIV/AIDS and other vulnerable populations. Since beginning law school David has been involved in a number of volunteer initiatives predominately dedicated to access to justice for underserved segments of society. David has close friends that have been impacted by HIV/AIDS and his involvement with HIV Community Link is driven by a desire to assist in combating the stigma associated with HIV/AIDS and to promote education and harm reduction.

(prevention + support + advocacy)