

HIV COMMUNITY LINK

Ron Barry specializes in oil and gas engineering and construction, working for clients such as Canadian Natural, Syncrude and Suncor. A native New Brunswicker, he consulted for a variety of blue chip corporations in Toronto before relocating to Calgary to join AMEC Oil & Gas. Ron is fluent in French and Italian. He is active in the community, serving on the Board of Directors for HIV Community Link, along with the Calgary Advisory Board of the Canadian Foundation for AIDS Research (CANFAR) and the Leadership Committee of the Calgary Philharmonic Orchestra's Wolfgang program. Previously he was the Founding Chair of CANFAR's Young Professional Council, served as a member of Ontario Advisory Council on HIV/AIDS and as a government relations advisor to the Canadian Opera Company. Ron has also contributed on municipal, provincial and federal election campaign teams in Ontario and Alberta.

(prevention + support + advocacy)